

ALBRECHT TECTALK BIZ

The Albrecht Tectalk biz is the ideal communication tool for professional use in hotels, restaurants, catering and retail. This compact and ultra-light radio optimises work processes and makes everyday work life more efficient.

In the hotel sector, the Tectalk biz ensures discreet conversations between reception, housekeeping and management, which increases the guest satisfaction. In the catering industry, it enables seamless contact between kitchen and service staff, increasing service speed and reducing errors. In retail, it helps sales staff to communicate quickly and unobtrusively, improving customer service and increasing sales.

The Tectalk biz takes productivity and customer service to the next level! The device can be customised thanks to the wide range of headsets and cable lengths. With an operating time of approx. 12 hours, it easily lasts for a whole working day.
