

Tourist Guide

> ATR/ATT 400

The ATR/ATT 400 Tourist Guide is the perfect communication system for touristic purposes, such as group trips, city excursions, cruises etc. It is also very useful in museums and factory tours when an excellent communication between guide and participants is required.

Due to the global available 2.4 GHz ISM band technology, the very handy and small units ensure crisp and clear sound.

Depending on your individual requirements the communication system can be combined with an unlimited numbers of receivers.
